Disney Trip is 1-week Away!

We are getting closer to our Spring Break Disney Trip! You received information last week with information on how to redeem your Disney Fast Passes. Information concerning flight information, rooming lists and itineraries are available on your Music Travel Account. You will find links for password help if you have trouble logging in.

You should have received a hard copy of the full list of travelers, airport location and flight group through your registered email submitted through your Music Travel Account. This information should also be in the Music Travel App.

If you have not already, please download the Music Travel App available at <https://www.musictravel.com/app/> for iPhones and Android Phones. This is an important part of our trip as it will assist in messaging, tracking and sending information throughout the trip.
